BIRMINGHAM JEWISH FOUNDATION Monsky Scholarship to the University of Alabama

To be eligible for a scholarship to University of Alabama the student must meet the following conditions:

- Student must be Jewish
- Student must be from the Greater Birmingham area.
- Student must plan to attend the University of Alabama.
- Student must have financial need. This is a need-based scholarship.

If you meet these requirements:

1. Submit the Summary page from FAFSA that includes the expected family contribution determined by FAFSA.
2. Submit a copy of your letter to the University of Alabama that states your intention to attend the University of Alabama.
3. Complete the Birmingham Jewish Foundation Scholarship application.
4. Submit the above application to lynn@CJFSbham.org.
5. All applicants for the University of Alabama scholarship must submit a written letter addressed to the Monsky Scholarship Advisory Committee. This letter should include a personal statement describing the applicant's current and past involvement in Jewish life. Applicants are encouraged to reflect on how their Jewish values, practices, or community participation have shaped their identity and how they hope to continue their engagement with Jewish life during and after their college experience.
